Arizona State Gang Task Force makes second arrest in case involving the death of a 7 month old infant

On October 30, 2008, detectives from the Gang & Immigration Intelligence Team Enforcement Mission (G.I.I.T.E.M.) served a search and arrest warrant at a residence in the 3600 block of East Dawson Road in Sahuarita, AZ. Rosalita Alday, a 47 year old female who lives at the address, was arrested on the felony arrest warrant for Hindering Prosecution a Class Three felony in Arizona.

Rosalita Alday is the wife of Jesus Manuel Moran. Jesus Manuel Moran, an outstanding fugitive, was arrested on October 17, 2008 by detectives from G.I.I.T.E.M.. Jesus Moran is charged with manslaughter in the death of Elijah Archuleta which occurred in a collision back in February, 2002. Jesus Moran was hiding from law enforcement officials since the collision allegedly with the assistance of his wife.

Rosalita Alday was booked into the Pima County Jail for violation of Arizona Revised Statutes 13-2512.A, Hindering Prosecution in the First Degree, a Class Three Felony.

The Arizona State Gang Task Force (G.I.I.T.E.M.) is a statewide, joint law enforcement effort consisting of 42 Federal, State, County, and Local law enforcement agencies hosted by the Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS). The mission of the task force is to:

Deter criminal gang activity through investigations, arrests, and prosecution

Dismantle gang related criminal enterprises

Deter border related crimes

Disrupt human smuggling organizations

Collect, analyze, and disseminate gang and illegal immigration intelligence

Provide anti-gang education and awareness training to communities and schools
